

Orchestrating Turbonomic with Action Scripts

1. Introduction to Action Scripts

- Learn how to orchestrate any action in Turbonomic externally through scripting

2. Server Set up and User Account Configuration

- Become familiar with the requisites for setting up an Action Script server
- Learn how to configure a user account on the Action Script server
- Understand how to securely communicate with your Turbonomic server

3. Preparing the Manifest and Scripts

- An overview of the languages that may be used to create the manifest
- Understand the wide array of entity types and the various related actions that may be orchestrated
- Learn how to tailor actions at any phase of execution with external scripting

4. Target Addition

- Learn how to add your Action Script server as a target through the Turbonomic UI
- Alternatively, utilize the Turbonomic API to add a target for your Action Script server

5. Creating Workflows for the Orchestration

- Learn how to create automation policies to implement the orchestration workflows through the Turbonomic UI
- Learn how to create automation policies to implement the orchestration workflows through the REST API

6. Explore Common Use Cases

- Explore common use cases for orchestrating with Action Scripts
- Delve into various use cases to see the workflow of the implementation and the visualization of the responses